

B·O·N·E·S

(Badger Osteoporosis Network for Education and Support)

2009 Calendar of Events

Tuesday, April 14- Dr. Neil Binkley, Associate Professor of Medicine and Director of UW Osteoporosis Clinical Research Program will present on "Vitamin D: New Research, Findings, and Implications"

Tuesday, May 12- Diane Krueger, Research Program Manager of UW Osteoporosis Clinical Research Program, will speak about "Bone Density Scans- What are They and Why are They Important?"

Tuesday, June 2- Dr. Bjoern Buehring, Department of Medicine and Clinical Oncology, will discuss "Falls-Why Do We Fall and What Can We Do to Prevent Falling?"

Tuesday, July 14 - Dr. Beth Elliot, Associate Professor of Pharmacy, will report on "Osteoporosis Medications- How do they Work?"

Tuesday, August 11- Ken Bowman, Senior Clinical Research Associate with Merck K Force Alliance, will talk about "Osteoporosis Medications- From the Lab Bench to the Pharmacy."

Tuesday, September 8- A panel discussion on "Everything You Wanted to Know About Being in an Osteoporosis Study, but were Afraid to Ask."

Tuesday, October 13- Fashion Show, sponsored by Boston Store.

Tuesday, November 10- Dr. Rekha Ramamurthy, Assistant Professor in the School of Medicine and Public Health, will address "Vitamin D and Cardiovascular Disease."

Tuesday, December 8- The annual B.O.N.E.S planning meeting and cookie exchange. Come and share ideas for next year and enjoy some holiday treats!

Planned events are subject to change. This year, all meetings will be held from 1:30-2:30 at our meeting site, Oakwood Village West, 6225 Mineral Point Rd. in the Auditorium. These meetings are free and open to the public. If you would like to be removed from the BONES mailing list, please call 608-265-6410.